English translation

These dreams are not mirages
These injured hands have definitely touched them
Looking ahead, I can see pain in the future
The road of battle will continue without end
These hands will hold up the sun
To keep on living, strength must be ascertained...
A yet unseen power

As it seems to overflow, I want to walk on
A power seen in dreams
I will never forget it
Right now I won't say goodbye
One day, somewhere, we'll meet by chance, right?
If the sky is burning in my heart
These eternal bonds will continue without end
The sun is always alone...
True strength has been embraced
A yet unseen power
Flowing like blood
A power I believe in
Won't be lost in my heart
A dazzling miracle
Standing like the morning sun
My heart's ground level
No matter what, I want to feel it
A yet unseen power
As it seems to overflow, I want to walk on
A power seen in dreams
I will never forget it
A dazzling miracle
Standing like the morning sun
My heart's ground level
No matter what, I want to feel it
