Just throw it away, and cast it to the wind
The moments we live and places we've been
I tried to be yours
Through all you changing faces

Tears will fall
When love has gone It closes you in
Till it brings you back again

(Chorus)
After the love is gone
There's a hole where my heart once was
After the love is gone

Waiting for more as you turn and walk away
And I'm not so sure that you wanna bring sush
Pain
Now I'm left here for dead

Tears will fall
When love has gone
It closes you in
Till it brings you back again

(Chorus)
After the love is gone
There's a hole where my heart once was
