"Life" you agree, ain't what it used to be.
You know your past is now history.
The present "now" of your company:
In this world you're called an "oletimer".

CHORUS:

Eyes that speak of a memory -
Pioneers of a century -
Like an eagle that has soarn;
Like an eagle you fly
In the truth of another sky.

"You" you agree, ain't what you used to be.
You know any "mistakes" are just history.
The present "now" of your company,
In this world you're called an "oletimer".
We celebrate our oletimers!
