English

Someone tell me, where should I go?
Someone tell me what I can do When I look up it's raining, when I turn around there's a wall

Just the scenery makes me sadder

Alone before dawn, I wander aimlessly but still can't find it

No matter how many times I search for the answer, I don't understand as much as I thought I'll take in the light I can see and try walking I'll try looking up at the moon

A red passion, I'm gonna take back
The heartbeat that was taken away that day, that time

I'll get through that black darkness and get rid of even the shadows that follow me around

Get the hope and courage to face up to the things you can't see
I'll walk, one step at a time, along the road that leads to tomorrow
Like a wish for the future

I'll get through that black darkness and search for the limitless blue sky

No matter how much I keep searching, I don't know the answer
I'll take in the light I can see, and go where my heart tells me Dawn is breaking

Get the hope and courage to face up to the things you
can't see
I'll walk, one step at a time, along the road that leads to
tomorrow
Like a wish for the future
I'll try looking up at the moon
At a colourful world
