I feel like a freak,
Cause I'm a guy
With desires that I can't satisfy.
Behind my every waking thought,
Well frustration is all that I've got.
Too much want now.
Too big a fan.
My wants are getting straight out of hand.
I want to feel, girl.
I want to touch, girl.
I think I want it much too much...

But do I look as hungry as I feel?
I don't know how much longer I can deal.
I'm going to stand on the rooftops,
I'm going to scream and shout it:
I can't stop thinking about it
