Don't touch my man when he's down and I'm not around
Don't push his pretty face down in the sand
And don't touch my man, he's too nice
He didn't wanna fight with you
The coward, you came from behind
He could have punched you, knocked you down
Blood on the sand
He's stronger than you think, this is your end

Don't touch my man man man man

My arms are ready, don't say I'm overprotective
I'm your girlfriend, I'm mad at you
I could get your body
And your boys might think
When no one can find them in the garbage you end up

Don't touch my man man man
Don't touch my man man man

My arms are ready, don't say I'm overprotective
I'm your girlfriend, I'm mad at you
I could get your body
And your boys might think
When no one can find them in the garbage you end up

Don't touch my man man man
Don't touch my man man man
Don't touch my man man man
Don't touch my..
Don't touch my man

Don't touch my man when he's down and I'm not
I saw the scars on his back, I'm in a rage
I wish I'd been there, been there too
Heal his wounds
Comfort his soul, make him feel that he's not alone

Don't touch my man when he's down and I'm not

I saw the scars on his back, I'm in a rage

My arms are ready, don't say I'm overprotective
I'm your girlfriend, I'm mad at you
I could get your body
And your boys might think
When no one can find them in the garbage you end up

Don't touch my man man man
Don't touch my man man man
Don't touch my man man man
Don't touch my..
Don't touch my man

My arms are ready, don't say I'm overprotective
I'm your girlfriend, I'm mad at you

Don't touch my man man man
Don't touch my..
Don't touch my man
