(Intro) Priest Yeah, Priest! Come wit me into the world Kamachi whadup? Let's go to work, uh, yeah Come wit me I'ma show you things that I've seen [Killah Priest] Poor education, broken families, failed religion Street's in vanity, the hood is insanity It's cramming me in We don't love ourselves, won't pick up a book And lessons by gangsters and crooks What you know 'bout ??love and put?? America history We had history before they brought us here in the ships of slavery All wisdom and bravery In Africa we neva rode the back of the bus But who cares as long as we got a seat I must complete We woulda became more independent if it wasn't for this interference Don't get defensive, step into the Priest experience We were great Kings and Queens Now in state green and fiends Why? Cuz we broke laws, now its mut war Let us soak pure, but what was, you'll always be Followed by enormous fleet, I ignored death When it calls I cheat, this is my blessing I was called to emcee (Chorus) Priest The David lights The Bravest Knights, gave us light Air light, be a light, see a light Ate the bread of life on that sacred night [Chief Kamachi] I think I'ma monkey in the jungle full of savages I had the Theorem way before Pythagoras My little children still playing wit the abacus Nighttime ritual, my flames look fabulous I've been here before, came back wit Lazarus Got locked up in a dope house in Nazareth I'm from a different blend possessed when the strip began Sermon do sinners but I prefer the clips for men Bodies below right where the strip began Holy Ghost slumped ova, drunk off a fifth of gin Break-dance, death trance, swift as spin Coliseums to mausoleums if I kick the pen There's only one King, his throne sit within Mike Tyson only, old school split his chin First round laid down neva spit again Mic Messiah, the ways of the wicked kin (Outro) Kamachi Yeah, Chief Kamachi & Killah Priest Beautiful Minds
