Deflowered on a moonlit night
The party's over, had no right
Smallest feet and shortest step
Broken lips hide sickened breath

Remembrance lost in tarnished mold
Life's destruction will unfold
Darkest night and hardest breach
Rejection caused a grim defeat

Ravished on this solemn ground
Denial struck without a sound
Deepest sleep and blackest dreams
Darling drug bring harmony

Deflowered
On a moonlit night
And the dress you wore, will wear no more
It's burning

Deflowered
On a moonlit night
And you'll never tell a soul about
Your trials

Deflowered on a moonlit night
The party's over, had no right
