"Winter left you alone"

you say it's hard to find someone so you're still alone and you're making it much harder when you forget to smile desperation's not attractive it's got it's brand on you you've got to stop the spinning wheel before it's all too late

and it's so damn easy to give you up
and it's so damn easy, easy to give you up it doesn't help to say you're sorry it's up to what you do could you be an inbetweener you're always so extreme you've always been this way you're jealous you complain never think about the ones that you have hurt along the way
