(Hook) Priest Life in the Science Projects Life in the Science Projects Life in the Science Projects Life in the Science Projects [Killah Priest] The beginnin' and the endin' The departure of close friendships Here today and gon' tomorrow Why should death be full of sorrow?
What do the pops of Marvin Gaye think about on Fathers Day? The last goodbyes are so hard to say, I pray God bless my oldest sister, knowin' I miss her Read the eulogy, refuse to speak on the pew wit the Preacher We're part of the Lost Tribes bought to these shores While America treated us evil, Deuteronomy speaks of the eagle And Obadiah put coals of fire on the heads of Edomites That won't give us our freedom rights Ask Willie Lynch what them demons were like?
The slave scene swing low, sweet chariot Like HE from Nazareth will come Carry us away, but we still here today The children play in buildings, lookin' for a way (Hook) Priest [Killah Priest] Life and death is like a carnival the cemeteries Ain't nobody left that's honorable, they all been buried The Prodigal Son return as the product from slums Tattoos on his abdominal and glocks by his lungs Superstitious, crucifixes and horseshoes hang And grab nines, livin' room since I've been in the womb Stain - Glass window Church's, Friday night service Israelite curses, Five-Percenters recitin' their verses What's his real name? Allah, God or Jah, or is it Yah? Jesus or JesÃs? They greet and name Zues Yakob or Jacob or Ya'qub? Crips or Blood? Baby Crips to Pirus We went to Jesus Disciples to Gangster Disciples Till those angels invite you, pass them pearly gates Think of worldly place you'll like to escape (Hook) Priest
