[Killah Priest] These harlots they tear at my flesh, they eat up my soul Regarded as Job, layin' naked in the Valley of Bones Skulls of dead woman grinnin', it's scary Till they're crushed under the foot of a gremlin Mother Mary, demons screamin', I said "That I am" The all eye seein', the skies cryin', I'm freezin' Icicles on the hairs of my nostrils The Apostle, light-years, I was there like a fossil Flood's the blood, mixed in the dirt Made red mud, slush of guts I wanna stand up or pull back by sluts That's when the sky had erupt Waves of electric white light Graves across my eye sight The dark waters have thick mud It intruded my rich blood The skies open, the eyes of Omen Rise of the Roman, ridin' the trojan Arrivin' ShoGun killin' the Conan Here's the token, God told 'em his real name His real name, he told me his real name He lives again, concealed in the frame It's still stained, the paint glass peels in the pain [Rasul Allah] Come take a journey with us This is light in the form of sound Sound in the form of light Cuz when you look Behind the Stained Glass You see the seven star spectrum [Killah Priest] They broke the windows Their face turned old and wrinkle Don't stare into the God eyes Flowin' ash, dark in the sky The fog that covered the Church part of the syze A mob begins to fly toward their face Hell Mary full of grace Let's exposed Stained Glass Shoulda neva pulled the drapes Priest-Killuminati a.k.a Rothschild by military force Was their kingdom brought down?
