"God Knows"

A flower girl was what i found my obvious interest made her frown An hour later she was mine my sunshine
when she woke up I wasn't there I wrote to her

I'm not someone who laid you just for fun
I'm desperately in love with you
God knows

Another day another girl another easy prey to swirl My love for you is true it'll last a thousand years
I have to go now waste no tears

I'm not someone
who laid you just for fun
God knows
