it's hard to be both yours and free it's hard to solve every mystery I'm still a kid on a bike, you see just about to conquer spring with new won speed amplify me
can't stand silence
fired back at me
don't want to be common might want to feel stardom just want to be cared for that's all
cool
I'm so in love with a simple song it makes me feel like nothing can go wrong even if there's not one word it's the language that I want to learn amplify me
can't stand the silence
cool
