"Things That You Love"

I have met so many girls that have run away
I never had a chance,
But I learned my lesson now:
When you say "yes" I say "No, no, no, no!"
Before you know it, I'm in control

I keep you apart from the things that you love,
Things that you love, things that you care about
Not to be evil, just to get you by myself

I have my own religion that I've practised well
Believers and non-believers, this is what I do.
When you say "yes" I say "No, no, no!"
I wanna have full control
So I keep you apart from the things that you love,
Things that you love, things that you care about
Not to be evil, just to get you by myself

I keep you apart from the things that you love,
Things that you love, things that you care about
Not to be evil, I just wanna have you by myself!

When you say "yes" I say "No, no, no!"
I wanna have full control
