I don't want to change the skin frames
But it is draining my mind
And the doctor says that it's okay
But he's no damn Jesus Christ
Because he's watching me all of the time
Makes me so paranoid
And there's a right way they all say
It's not like I have a choice

Chorus

Give me one more day to change
And I will make it okay
I'll leave the porno queen to stream
And I will try to come clean

I don't want to change my old ways
But it is straining my eyes
And my lady says that it's okay
But she's just trying to be nice

Note: A song about pornography
