It's my war

One more night of primal fight
I can't take anymore, this addiction's a whore.
I know I'm right every fight
I've been pacing the streets, crawling skin and disease

Chorus

Ancient walls of alcohol
It's my war
The ancient cure of lonely souls
It's my war

Day by day by day
The porno, priest, and pain
Day by day by day
The visions, shakes, and chains

Since a child the struggle's vile
As I stuttered in youth I chose poison for truth
Doctor please just cut me clean
They say I have a disease that I can never be free

Story: A song about my brother's battles with alcoholism.
