She's the girl, of my dreams
And everyday I watch her while she leaves.
Is their someday, to make her mine
I just wanna stare in her blue eyes.

And we'll, be alright
Cause she's the reason, I'm alive.
Alive.

Does she even, know my name
Maybe she could even feel the same.
Does she daydream, about me too
Like The Beatles said, just 'love me do'

And we'll, be alright
Cause she's the reason, I'm alive.
Alive.

I know that thier's time
For the sun shine on both of us, so bright.
I feel like I'm high
And I'm never coming down again, tonight (tonight)
Cause it feels so right (Cause it feels so right)

I can't stop thinking, of her blond hair
Running through my fingers in the air.
As we're driving, the motorway
She grabs me and starts blowing me, away

And we'll, be alright
Cause she's the reason, I'm alive.
Alive.

Alive, alive.
