When I saw that face, such a simple face
An ordinary, average girl.
And she was lost somehow, in the lost and found
After her world came tumbling down.

And it's all who that you see,
Who do you know?
Do they really care?
And will they Ever Show?
And it's all who that you need?
Who do you love?
Do you really care?
Will you Ever Show?

And one day by chance,
a certain circumstance,
brought her whole world into view.
And she was found somehow,
Out of the lost and found
After her walls came crumbling down.
And it's all who that you see,
Who do you know?
Do they really care?
And will they Ever Show?
And it's all who that you need?
Who do you love?
Do you really care?
Will you Ever Show?

Ahhh...will they Ever Show?
Ahhh...will they Ever Show?
Ahhh...will you Ever Show?
Chorus
