now I'm standin' alone at the crossroads, Everything has led to this ,
Everything reminds me of you,
I've hurt everyone I know,
and now I'm standin alone at the crossroads,

I never meant to hurt you I never meant to singe your skin,
I guess your mom & dad were right I have sunk to a new low
and now I'm standin alone at the crossroads,

At the crossroads I threw in the towel,
At the crossroads I spent my final hour,

She looked at me with her black whole eyes,
I was overtaken by her disguise,
I was no spotless lamb as I was led to the slaughter, I sold my soul,
and now I'm standin alone at the crossroads,

at the crossroads I threw in the towel,
at the crossroads I spent my final hour,
Now I'm standin' alone, Now I'm standin' alone
