Your wrapped around her finger, but were was she when we fought the war, everyone wants to call you friend Just so they can see them themselves in you

Now Your coast is clear, but your mind is suicidal, blood is flowing from the winepress as high as a horse's bridle,

And they want you because their friends want you,
And they'll try to carve their names in you, but to them you are immuned, immuned,

Now you cut through the mumble jumble, because you're tougher than the rest, Yea you know what it feels like to really bleed, you're tired of living in fear you know where it went wrong yea they're gonna pay the piper, you've been tried by fire, no your not just a preacher, we all know you want to touch her , you're hiding behind the choir,

And they want you, because their friends want you,
And they'll try to carve their names in you, but to them you are immuned,
They want you, And they'll try to carve their names in you,
but to them you are immuned,
They want you, Have no fear, I'll always be with you
