So you find yourself in the fight of your life. Now you're scared you feel your heart pumpin' the blood it's in your veins, but who will hear ol'Ã©

Now there's much for us to learn in this life, and when the trumpet is blow, your forced to face the vice that plagues your life, but who will hear ol'Ã©

When they're in your face ol'Ã©, presiosa sangre ol'Ã©
When they show their horns, knockin' down your door ole
Can you keep the faith?

Pain and Sacrifice have been man's lot in life, one more matador is willing to pay the price, to save our souls, but who will hear ol'Ã©?

Now who's it gonna be that is victorious and win the fight, It was Veronica that whipped the face of Christ, so it's been told, But who will hear ol'Ã©
