I get lost and I call out your name,
You always said I would make out OK,
Yea you're right there in my mind,
We were kids I know but still the same,
Our love ran deep at the bay,
Our passion ran like the tide.

I know that was a lifetime ago,
But it keeps me thinkin,
Why can't we just press rewind and do it again?

Just press rewind,
Indian summer nights,
Just 2 hearts lost in the tide.

I remember the smell of your skin,
The way we kissed and your hair in the wind,
Yea there was no clouds in our sky,
Didn't know when you turned and walked away,
That be the last of our childhood days,
Yea I believed in the way at the time.

I know that was a lifetime ago,
But it keeps me thinkin,
Why can't we just press rewind and do it again?
Just press rewind,
Indian summer nights,
Just 2 hearts lost in the tide.
