"Set You Free"

I don't know what you're goin' through,
But I do know that I care,
All those hoops that they put you through,
Oh leaves you beggin' for air.
I wanna set you free.

Gonna set you free,
When your feeling tired,
Gonna set you free,
I'll be the spark that lights your fire,
Gonna set you free,
You know I'll walk a thousand miles,
Just to set you free.

Oh girl your not gonna lift a finger,
Tonights the night you're gonna shine,
You know the world is dark,
But your light it shines,
Oh you're like a sparkling new diamond,
I wanna set you free.
I'm gonna find the woman in you,
I'm not just gonna meet you halfway
