How am I to be
With all your silly ways now
How am I to be
With all your silly ways
Now

I can take you home
If you wanna go
I can take you home
If you wanna go
Now

And there's no reason I can see for you to stay
Our truth (troops?) expired when
Armed with my secrets, the fight begins

How am I to be
With all your silly ways now
How am I to be
With all your silly ways
Now

Your past full of land mines I can't see
I can't disengage this heart
What time we been traveled from the start

And in the mornin'
When the smoke cleared there was life
Your white flag raised up high
Come back to my arms honey child

How am I to be
With all your silly ways now
How am I to be
With all your silly ways
Now

I can take you home
I can take you home
I can take you home
