The Watson Twins

Fire Songs

Waves

all these waves

are crashing in on me

am I just drifting in an endless sea

the sirens call out to me enchanted creatures sing soft melodies am I floating away

underwater whilst I begin to sway

all these lives

and everyone I used to be

is it she or she or me

the painted prism from a child's dream the storybooks they told me differently the happy ending sailing o'er from me all these thoughts

and does this mean my restless mind will never sleep

I toss and turn just to see and the sea began to breathe and I can't make out what it means am I further from the truth I seek

all these days

from one to another

moments of joy and moments of pain at this moment they're all the same do these these tears fall from my eyes are they real or just the rain from the skies

crashing in on me
