Late afternoon, another day is nearly done
A darker grey is breaking through a lighter one
A thousand sharpened elbows in the underground
That hollow hurried sound, feet on polished floor
And in the dollar store, the clerk is closing up
And counting loonies trying not to say

I hate Winnipeg

The driver checks the mirror seven minutes late
The crowded riders' restlessness enunciates
The Guess Who sucked, the Jets were lousy anyway
The same route everyday
And in the turning lane
Someone's stalled again
He's talking to himself
And hears the price of gas repeat his phrase
I hate Winnipeg

And up above us all Leaning into sky Our golden business boy Will watch the North End die And sing, $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}$ ¢ \hat{a} , $\neg \tilde{A}$..."I love this town $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}$ ¢ \hat{a} , $\neg \tilde{A}$, \hat{A} \Box Then let his arcing wrecking ball proclaim

I Hate Winnipeg
