Don't argue Now you roll a three-twenty E with the guarders Hit the club scene in a limousine stretch With big fame shining on your Lex No more county cheques, with the King with that bomb sex and sweetheart you never know what's next Check, the homies in the hood say my cape's on flight But we be smoking eighths all night, and that's alright Shake a lil ass, I'll bite Spend a little cash I might, just make sure...
