Glitter girl
Face to the world before her own creation
Born to shine
Determined child
guarded by a nation

Wish for civilization
Eyes of a population
Forced to put on a smile
As she saw the light

Glitter girl
A phase to the world before her own creation
Born to shine
Determined child
guarded by a nation

Vision's illusion
Answer's solution
Forced to put on a smile
as she saw the light

Virgin cries when her times turns dry
Her death is in every eye
