It's all done in silence,
In the panic of the night.
Take a risk, come back to life.
Here the darkness meets the light.

Before the lighting of the sky:
Streets of gold, a horse of white.
The kingdom chords were set in stone,
Reveal the curtain yet unknown.

[Chorus:]
It's all done in silence,
In the panic of the night.
Take a risk, come back to life.
Here the darkness meets the light.
It's all done in silence,
We're finally alive.
Heed the call, this is the fight.
Here the darkness meets the light.

This is the turning of a page,
Without a sound, without a stage.
The pieces come and take their place,
The song of a sword, lives are flames.

[Chorus]

[Interlude]
