forever is a mountain weve yet to climb tears are a part of what is yet to leave behind strength in numbers all you need is two everyones a winner yet still so many lose the volume of emotion erupting in our souls a quiet revelation quickly takes ahold patience is a virtue but she wont always wait dissension is the tension its what weve learned to hate it was late september i remember well memories of living the old man told the tale of rising and falling of cruelty and kind the thing the old man told me truly blew my mind we are finding who we are cause we can see forever i know its been said so many times before i once was blind but now i see and sometimes it just makes no sense but i believe yeah
