If this is it then I don't wanna know anymore. I'll just forget and what a waste it'd for anyone to know I'd sit and play these notes on this old guitar about this life of love and broken hearts. If we are it is it even worth fighting for. They'll just forget everything we've worked so hard for but we live and we'll never know what could have been and how they fought and the years they spent.

CHORUS

When this it I'll find it to your arms once more. We won't forget 'cause this can't be it for anyone, for anyone, and me.

If this is all then what all long way to come just to fall and what a shame it'd be to go. Before we're done we'll give it one last try. We'll see if we can not start that fire.

CHORUS

But if we can't then what a time we've had anyhow. Through it all we suffered countless times and made it out. Until this day, we'll keep our heads held high and you'll always be mine.
