It's time to say just what you want and it's time to want things in life you want and its time we talked about your life with my life, 'bout your life with my life. It's time I say just what I think and its time to think things out before I speak and its times like these that we really live our lives, that we live our lives.

And all I really wanted was for your to be happy and I'll do what I have to to make it happen and all I'm really saying is that you really listen and we'll find ourselves out this mess and we'll find ourselves out this mess.

It's time I think about my life and everything inside and how I coincide with everything that I write and all the things that I try, with all the things I try. And I put forth my best but my best could be better if I ever ever ever want this, want this. So its time I do what I do what I know and thats you, and thats you.
