I am watchin' tv with the lights off and I am watchin' myself turn the lights on. And I know we are the only ones who can dream up. I figured it out in my own house. I figured it out in my own house.

Chorus

And I know that he knows what we've been searchin' all this time, what we've been searchin' all this time. And I know that he knows, that he knows best.

This is all we have until it's gone. So lets just sit back and enjoy. But what if our minds won't let us relax. I figured it out in my own house. I figured it out in my own house.

Chorus
