Listen to the firecrackers pop in the warm summertime air. You've never felt more alone that you do 'cause you know that she's not there. These July nights are filled with fun but the loneliness weighs a ton. So catch some z's my good friend. It's the only medicine.

CHORUS

Stop staring at the blank television. That's not gonna pay the bill. The somber screams do not echo anymore in this cold apartment. Though they are heard throughout your memory, they're hear throughout your empty dreams, your empty dreams. This is all you've got to hold onto, you've got to hold onto your memory.
