I'll take my time and my chances
What do you know
She don't check me out she just glances
I won't put on a show

She'll know I know you know I need to find a way
And I won't be leaving you with any doubt
If you've got nothing nice to say
Don't say a thing to me
Apple dumpling shop
We'd both be better off
But now we just can't stop

I'll take my time and my chances
What do you know
She don't check me out she just glances
I won't put on a show

She'll know I know you know I need to find a way
And I won't be leaving you with any doubt
If you've got nothing nice to say
Don't say a thing to me
Apple dumpling shop
We'd both be better off
But now we just can't stop
I'm trying to test
Refresh my memory
I'm starving for something
Not something that I need

Apple dumpling shop
We'd both be better off
But now we just can't stop
I'm trying to test
Refresh my memory
I'm starving for something
Not something that I need

Apple dumpling shop
We'd both be better off
But now we just can't stop
