We can't begin
The hours pass and throw us in the tempest
So I resist
A girl I could love
'Cause the past keeps creeping up and spilling out
Of control

All this time
Wishing you'd be mine
But now I know
I need to let you go
Karianne

You sweetheart
Will surely find someone who protects you
Like I do
For someone as smart
You're living your whole life in the wrong way
No control

All this time
Wishing you'd be mine
But now I know
I need to let you go
Karianne
