you don't own my soul though your payroll pays my bills you don't own my soul though your payroll pays my bills but I keep my nose to the stone though Lord knows that it kills I keep tryin' oh I keep pushin' now baby I keep tryin' oh I keep pushin' now baby I keep tryin' to push my train down the track but the world keeps pushin' me back don't owe no money but I got a bounty on my head don't owe no money but I got a bounty on my head cause I keep livin' like I'm livin' though even the devil wants me dead take a deep breath boy lift that weight up off your chest take a deep breath boy lift that weight up off your chest cause after all the time I've learned livin's the only vaccine for death
