you don't live the way you should you're not chaste or wise or good oh no, when you're human i wait for you my queen i keep myself ready clean like my maker against nature i needn't worry about all the wars out there the price of fish and all the ineffective hygiene you are the reason why i've reached perfection you are the reason why i try to tend this fertile void i'm a 13th century boy these are heroic times so thumb your nose at years gone by be hardened...we're a legend now love keeps the country green i know because i've seen the pictures in this week's scriptures all i know is that i feel you coming near all you need know is that your prophatelector is waiting you are the reason why i've reached perfection
and i'm a 13th century boy you are the reason why i live forever you are the reason why i learned to love the void oh i'm a 13th century boy oh i'm a new gone ages boy
