It's the last time around now for Mr. Dav-Davis
He has a song for us called, 'Good luck charm'

If a black cat crossed your path, little woman
Would you walk along with me?
Don't have to worry 'bout a thing, girl
It's all right, you see
'Cause I'm a good luck charm
Honey, don't you worry 'bout me, alright, alright

If you ain't got no money, baby
That's all right too
As long as you stick to me
Someone will come to you
I'm a good luck charm
Honey, don't you worry 'bout me, alright

If a black cat crossed your path, little brave woman
Would you walk along with me?
Don't have to worry 'bout a thing, girl
It's all right, you see
I'm a good luck charm
Honey, don't you worry 'bout me

I'm a good luck charm
Honey, don't you worry 'bout me, alright
