I thought about you last night

I thought about you last night
It's been a long time
I thought about you last night
Couldn't get you off my mind
Filled all the spaces with good worthwhile lies Stayed away from places where you'd like my bad side

And by the feel of the floor on my face
The emptiness inside me filled up all my space
Filled all the moments with bad Hallmark cards
I love you forever, you'll know you've been had
Love, love
What are we thinking of, love
Love, love
You sell it in the shape of a dove, love

I dreamt about you last night
It's been a long time
I cried about you last night
Sending you a valentine
Remember the words of your cheap Hallmark cards
I love you forever, you'll never be sad

Love, love
What are we thinking of, love
Love, love
You sell it in the shape of a dove, love
Love, love
What are we thinking of, love
Love, love
You sell it in the shape of a dove, love
Love

I screamed about you last night
It's been a long time
I wrote about you last night
Wished you were all mine
Wasted those moments when I thought you were sad

Believed every word that you stole from a card

Love, love

What are we thinking of, love

Love, love

You sell it in the shape of a dove, love

Love, love

What are we thinking of, love

Love, love

You sell it in the shape of a dove, love

You sell it in the shape of a dove, love

You sell it in the shape of a dove, love

Love
