Picture us at the station

Takin' a permanent vacation from the old us

It might take some work

But don't you think we're worth

The aggravation

I can see you look at me with those eyes accusingly

But one and one equals two

Don't forget it's me and you

(Chorus:)

We're driving this train off the track

Gotta turn it around and find our way back

Cause the ties that are keepin' us together

Are breakin' apart and starting to weather

There's no one to blame

We both gotta change

It takes two to drive

A love train

It's easy to go north to south

Slide down hill and start to doubt your commitment

Gotta watch the path you take

A short cut just may make or break the connection

So let's start takin' us to heart

Before we find that we're apart

If heaven is what we dare

Our love can take us there

(Chorus)

La la la la la la
