Life on a one way street
There's no slowing down
My destination guided by your word
Now that I'm going I can't go back
So many things obstructing my view
Unknown dreams and roads I could take
So lead me to only you

Chorus:

If only I could see what you see
If only I could know what you know
With these uncertain signs I dare not turn
For I long to do your will

Waiting is the hardest part
Patience is what I need
Though I take the time to know your desire
Nothing else I'd want as much
You give me strength to do your work
Pressing on to be the man you need me to be
So lead me to only you
