(music)

Back when i went to school,kids smoked, and swore and broke some rules but i mean didnt everybody,almost everybody!

fake Id,bought a quart of beer had the devils rock-n-roll ringin in our ears and people said these kids gotta problem here, im not sayin that they werent right,ive cried and tryed to understand what im seenin on the news tonight ill admit we were young and foolish,tottaly irresponsible!

(chorus)

but nobody died,we all made it home,well we'd fuss and fight and make mistakes,but life went on,there were broken hearts and dreams and wounded pride,but nobody died!

kids got bullied,picked on and teased,but some how we found are place in the skeem of things, and time heels everything,almost everything, when i look back on the things i've done,some good some bad

and im sorry if i hurt anyone,ya im really sorry if i hurt anyone,
how'd we get from there to here from shakespeare,math and science to shots ringin in our ears whats it gunna take to get us, get us back to where.....

(CHORUS)

nobody died,we all made it home,well we fuss and fight and make mistakes,but life when on,there were broken hearts and dreams and wounded prides,(but nobody died)!x3
