Summer say my name
And take away last fall
Show me I was loved
And prove me I was wrong

And take me to the places
That we used to go
I promise I won't leave you
There's nothing else I want

I day dream about memories
That bring you back to me
And this Valentine's Day feels so sweet
Cause you are right back next to me

Snowflakes all around
I don't feel the cold
You told me that you love me
This you do not know

This is that one secret
That you breathed to me
But until right now
I didn't want to give it away

And I day dream about memories
That bring you back to me
And this Valentine's Day feels so sweet
Cause you are right back next to me

Can you feel this
Can you feel me getting closer
Can you feel this
Can you feel me getting closer
Do you feel this
Can you feel me getting closer
Do you feel this
Well do you feel this

And I day dream about memories
That bring you back to me

And this Valentine's Day feels so sweet
Cause you are right back next to me
