I feel this cut
So deep in me
A night of tragic memories
All that could have gone
Has gone wrong

And all these thoughts
Still eat away
These thoughts alone they're hard to break
I can't take another dose this strong

So here I go
Another nightmare
A wasted sleep
No there's not resting here
Why can't I just teach myself not to care
Tell me why this is so unfair

Light the paper
Watch it burn
A diary of you is gone
Ash will find it's way
And turn to mud

And guts will spill
And bleed for you
Can this be the last thing I'll do
Holding onto words that scar my heart

So here I go
Another nightmare
A wasted sleep
No there's no resting here
Why can't I just teach myself not to care
Tell me why this is so unfair

I used to hold you
So close at night
You told me your dreams
I gave up on mine
So this is my solution

For when you pulled away
Take me back cuz I can't take it
I can't take it, oh

I used to hold you
So close at night
You told me your dreams
I gave up on mine
So this is my solution
For when you pulled away
Take me back cuz I can't take it
I can't take it, oh

I used to hold you
So close at night
You told me your dreams
I gave up on mine
So this is my solution

I used to hold you
So close at night
You told me your dreams
I gave up on mine
So this is my solution
I can't take it

I feel this cut so deep in me
A night of tragic memories
All that could have gone
Has gone wrong
