(Wolke/Taraxes)

Well I see all those faces
Who'll never believe in this world
Oh, I've been wasting so much time
Time to get into their minds
Oh I will never close my eyes
Will never lie
It's time to make it happen
Go inside
Time's passing by
We are getting closer to it
Come and take my hand
Leave behind the nasty world
That surrounds you and I
And finally we fly
We can make it
If you really want you can get it
Get it out of your head -
Well I've seen all those places
I've seen all the pain in this world
Oh I, I've seen them waste their lives
Day by day, living lies
Time's passing by
We are getting closer to it
Come and take my hand
Leave behind the nasty world
That surrounds you and I
And finally we fly
We can make it
If you really want you can get it
Get it out of your head -
Crime! Time!
Time's passing by
We are getting closer to it
Come and take my hand
Leave behind the nasty world
That surrounds you and I
And finally we fly
We can make it
If you really want you can get it
Get it out of your head -
