stand off, a stand off we're off to the send-off you sit on the stairs lost in your hair what's that you're wearing?
it looks like a necklace oh, how the stars
shine on your face
I won't stand
I won't wait
I won't stand for that I won't wait now I say
another time in another room skin turned and held sweat lost in all it's feeling I fell in your eyes
I fell for your eyes pull back the curtains let in the dark I'll lie and watch while your hair sparks
I won't stand
I won't wait
I won't stand for that
you told me stars would fall you told me ice would melt you told me everything! now and again
a bad debt won't wait
I won't wait
