Were you born or just conceived?
Whatever comes, crosses me
There's no routine, I've never liked this.
What can I say?
There's lightning on the hill tonight
Over in the West
The colour changes shape and slides.
I'm not stuck to be inspired by her or by me
Get this, and how, I'm lifted way way down
Too tired to say too weak to speak
I've got a feeling, sounds like a fact
It's been around As Long As That
There is a notion you've got it too
It's been around As Long As That
Where can you go?
The thunder settles in and waits
Trams on the rattle
Windows banging shut like gates.
Slap my face use your lungs
She brought me more to life,
You think I'm young I'm not half those things.
Why did it rain?
The days ran away from us
Heaven never knew
The chances that it left for us.
Fast and slow, Breeze to wind
Wrapped beneath her
You take charge
I'll put you at ease
Too tired to say too weak to speak
I've got a feeling, sounds like a fact
It's been around As Long As That
There is a notion you've got it too
It's been around As Long As That
What can I say?
There's lightning on the hill tonight
Over in the West
The colour changes shape and slides.
Think of someone and double it
That's what I did
Get this and how, I'm lifted way way down

Too tired to say too weak to speak
I've got a feeling, sounds like a fact
It's been around As Long As That
There is a notion you've got it too
It's been around As Long As That
As Long, As Long, As Long,
As Long As That
What's wrong, What's wrong, What's wrong,
What's wrong with that
