"Midnight To Neon"

No sign of heaven here
Just some run-down imitation white cloud

So you been crying hard
Wake up and up to what you been lying on

I don't ask for the earth and God knows I don't ever get it

So you been crying hard
Wake up and up
to what you been lying on

Midnight to neon

Why don't you give nothing to the man who has everything ?
So now I tucked my skirts with the business and the business and the business of dirt

So you been crying hard
Wake up and up
