The heater's on
The windows are thin
I'm trying hard
To keep this warmth in
I turn to her
She's sound asleep

Someplace I don't know
Doesn't matter how far you come
You've always got further to go

Chorus
I tried to tell you
I can only say it when were apart
About this storm inside of me
And how I miss your quiet, quiet heart.

Two hours on
My eyes are open
There's bad blood between us
What did I say
That made you cry?
Our dream won't die
Doesn't matter how far you come
You've always got further to go.

Chorus

What is that light?
that small red light ...
Scorpio rising
Doesn't matter how far you come
You've always got further to go

Chorus
